Core Values in Sport for Young People

Triathlon Ireland is based on the following principles that will guide the development of young people within triathlon, (as outlined in page 9, Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport). Young People's experience of sport should be guided by what is best for the young person. The stages of development and the ability of the young person should guide the types of activity provided within the club/ organisation. Adults will need to have a basic understanding of the needs of young people, including physical, emotional and personal.

Integrity in relationships:

Adults interacting with young people in sport should do so with integrity and respect for the child. There is a danger that sporting contexts can be used to exploit or undermine children. All adult actions in sport should be guided by what is best for the child and in the context of quality, open working relationships. Verbal, physical, emotional or sexual abuse of any kind is unacceptable within sport.

Quality atmosphere and ethos

Sport for young people should be conducted in a safe, positive and encouraging atmosphere. A child-centred ethos will contribute to a safe and enjoyable atmosphere within the organisation.

Equality

All children should be treated in an equitable and fair manner regardless of age, ability, sex, religion, social and ethnic background or political persuasion. Children with disability should be involved in sports activities in an integrated way, thus allowing them to participate to their potential alongside other children.

Fair Play:

Fair play is the guiding principle of the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport. All sport for young people should be conducted in an atmosphere of fair play. Ireland has contributed and is committed to the European Code of Sports Ethics, which defines fair play as: "much more than playing within the rules". It incorporates the concepts of friendship, respect for others and always playing with the right spirit. Fair play is defined as a way of thinking, not just behaving. It incorporates issues concerned with the elimination of opportunities, excessive commercialisation and corruption. (European Sports Charter and Code of Ethics, Council of Europe, 1993).

Competition

A balanced approach to competition can make a significant contribution to the development of young people, while at the same time providing fun, enjoyment and satisfaction. However, competitive demands are often placed on children too early, which results in excessive levels of pressure on them. This can contribute to a high level of drop out from sport. Sports leaders should aim to put the welfare of the child first and competitive standards second. A child-centred approach will help to ensure that competition and specialisation are kept in their appropriate place.

Triathlon Ireland Policy Statement

Triathlon Ireland is fully committed to safeguarding the well being of their members. Every individual in Triathlon Ireland should at all times, show respect and understanding for members rights, safety and welfare and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the organisation and the guidelines contained in the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport.

In working with young people in triathlon our first priority is the welfare of the young people and we are committed to providing an environment that will allow participants to perform to the best of their ability, free from bullying and intimidation.

Triathlon Ireland Safety Statement

Triathlon Ireland recognises and accepts its responsibility as a National Governing Body to maintain, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety and health of its employees and volunteers, and of other persons who may be affected by its' activities.

Triathlon Ireland Equality Statement

Triathlon Ireland recognises that discrimination and victimization is unacceptable and that it is in the interest of the Organisation and its employees to utilize the skills of the total workforce. It is the aim of the Organisation to ensure that no employee, job applicant or volunteer receives less favourable facilities or treatment (either directly or indirectly) in recruitment or employment on grounds of age, disability, gender / gender reassignment, marriage / civil partnership, pregnancy / maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

It is recommended that the above statements are written into the Constitution of each club affiliated to Triathlon Ireland and, as such, triathlon clubs can follow the guidelines contained within this document.

Code of Conduct for Young People

Triathlon Ireland wishes to provide the best possible environment for all young people involved in the sport. Young people deserve to be given enjoyable, safe sporting opportunities, free of abuse of any kind. Guidelines for Parents

Triathlon Ireland and its affiliated clubs believe that parents should:

Be a role model for your child and maintain the highest standards of conduct when interacting with young people, other parents, officials and organisers.

Always behave responsibly and do not seek to unfairly affect an athlete or the outcome of a race.

Never intentionally expose any young participant to embarrassment or disparagement by the use of flippant or sarcastic remarks.

Always recognise the value and importance of the officials and volunteers who provide sporting and recreational opportunities for your child. Do not publicly question the judgement or honesty of technical officials, coaches or organisers. Respect professionals, coaches, organisers and other athletes. Parents are welcome to attend events and coaching sessions but should not interfere with the coach while working with the athlete.

Encourage your child to play by the rules. Teach your child that honest endeavour is as important as winning and do all you can to encourage good sportsmanship.

Set a good example by applauding good play on both sides. Encourage mutual respect for teammates and opponents.

Parents should support all efforts to remove abusive behaviour and bullying behaviour in all its forms. Please refer to bullying policy within these guidelines.

Parents Code of Conduct:

1. I will respect the rules and procedures set down by Triathlon Ireland.
2. I will respect my child's teammates and leaders as well as athletes, parents and coaches from opposing teams. I will encourage my child to treat other participants, coaches, technical officials and organisers with respect.
3. I will give encouragement and applaud only positive accomplishments whether from my child, his/her teammates, their opponents or the officials.
4. I will respect my child's leader(s) and support his/her efforts.
5. I will respect the officials and their authority during sessions and events within the organisation and under the auspice of Triathlon Ireland.
6. I will never demonstrate threatening or abusive behaviour or use foul language.

Guidelines for Sports Leaders (including coaches, team managers, support team, etc.)

Triathlon Ireland recognises the key role leaders (coaches, team managers, sports science personnel, support team, volunteers, children's officer, designated persons, committee members and teachers, etc.) play in the lives of young people in sport. Leaders in triathlon should strive to create a positive environment for the children in their care. They have an overall responsibility to take the necessary steps to ensure that positive and healthy experiences are provided. All Leaders should have as their first priority the children's safety and enjoyment of triathlon and should adhere to the guidelines and regulations set out in the Triathlon Ireland's Safeguarding Code.

Leaders should respect the rights, dignity and worth of every child and must treat everyone equally, regardless of gender, age, disability, social class, race, religion, etc.

Leaders working with young people in triathlon should have the appropriate experience or hold the necessary qualifications. Leaders will be expected to go through appropriate recruitment and selection procedures, whether paid or unpaid. For those in ROI Garda Vetting procedures should be followed for all those with regular access to young people and in NI all those working 'frequently' or 'intensively' must complete Access NI procedures to comply with the Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults legislation. For those 'new' to the organisation references will be needed and will be followed up.

There will be a 'sign-up' procedure, whereby the appointed/reappointed leaders agree to abide by Triathlon Ireland's Safeguard Code and to the policies and code of the conduct of Triathlon Ireland. You should know and understand the child protection policies and procedures in the Safeguard Code for Triathlon Ireland for Young People.

Once appointed the Leader should act as a role model and promote the positive aspects of triathlon and maintain the highest standards of personal conduct. Leaders should develop an appropriate relationship with young people, based on mutual trust and respect. Remember your behaviour to athletes, other officials and opponents will have an effect on the athletes in your care. You should report any concerns you have to the lead officer in your organisation, contacts at back of this document.

Being a role model

- You will be required to display high standards of language, manner, punctuality, preparation and presentation
- Ensure that athletes in your care respect the rules of the race. Insist on fair play and ensure athletes are aware you will not tolerate cheating or bullying behaviour
- Encourage the development of respect for opponents, officials and other leaders and avoid criticism of fellow leaders and coaches. Do not criticise other leaders.
- The use of illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco must be actively discouraged as they are incompatible with a healthy approach to sporting activity. Leaders should avoid the use of alcohol and illegal substances before coaching, during events, while supervising trips with young athletes and providing a duty to care.

Protection for leaders

- Leaders are responsible for setting and monitoring the boundaries between a working relationship and friendship with athletes. It is advisable for leaders not to involve young athletes in their personal life i.e. visits to leaders' homes or overnight stays. It is important to realise that certain situations or friendly actions could be misinterpreted by the participant or by outsiders
- Avoid working alone and ensure there is adequate supervision for all activities.
- Where possible work in an open environment and ensure that physical contact is appropriate and has the permission or understanding of the young person.
- Care must be taken not to expose a child intentionally or unintentionally to embarrassment or disparagement by use of sarcastic or flippant remarks about the child or his/her family.
- Physical punishment or physical force must never be used. Never punish a mistake - by verbal means, physical means, or exclusion.

A positive environment

- Be generous with praise and never ridicule or shout at athletes for making mistakes or for losing a match. All young athletes are entitled to respect.
- Be careful to avoid the "star system". Each child deserves equal time and attention.
- Remember that young athletes play for fun and enjoyment and that skill development and personal satisfaction have priority over highly structured competition. Never make winning the only objective.
- Set realistic goals for the participants and do not push young athletes. Create a safe and enjoyable environment.
- When approached to take on a new athlete, ensure that any previous coach-participant relationship has been ended in a professional manner.
- It is advisable to get agreement from a parent/guardian when young athletes are invited into adult groups/squads. Boundaries of behaviour in adult groups are normally different from the boundaries that apply to junior groups/squads.
- Leaders who become aware of a conflict between their obligation to their athletes and their obligation to the club/organisation must make explicit to all parties concerned the nature of the conflict and the loyalties and responsibilities involved.
- Leaders should communicate and co-operate with medical and ancillary practitioners in the diagnosis, treatment and management of their athletes' medical or related problems. Avoid giving advice of a personal or medical nature if you are not qualified to do so. Any information of a personal or medical nature must be kept strictly confidential unless the welfare of the child requires the passing on of this information.
- The nature of the relationship between leader and a participant can often mean that a leader will learn confidential information about an athlete or athlete's family. This information must be regarded as confidential and, except where abuse is suspected, must not be divulged to a third party without the express permission of the athlete/family.

Code of Conduct for Leaders

Leaders should familiarise themselves with the Code, in particular this code of conduct. Leaders should read below and agree to abide by these terms.

As a leader in triathlon I agree that I should:

- Be positive during sessions and competitions, praise and encourage effort as well as results.
- Put the welfare of young person first, strike a balance between this and winning / results.
- Encourage fair play and treat participants equally.
- Recognise developmental needs, ensuring activities are appropriate for the individual.
- Plan and prepare appropriately.
- Be committed to values & guidelines of this Safeguarding Code for Triathlon Ireland and / or hold up-to-date qualifications.
- Involve parents where possible and inform parents when problems arise.
- Keep a record of attendance at training and competitions.
- Keep a brief record of injury(s) and action taken.
- Keep a brief record of problem/action/outcome, if behavioural problems arise.
- Report any concerns in accordance with this Code's reporting procedures.

Where possible I will avoid:

- Spending excessive amounts of time with children away from others.
- Taking sessions alone.
- Constant communication with individual athletes by mobile phone or email.
- Taking children to my home.
- Taking children on journeys alone in my car.

Sports Leaders should not:

- Use any form of physical punishment or physical force on a child.
- Exert undue influence over a participant in order to obtain personal benefit or reward.
- Engage in rough physical games, sexually provocative games or allow or engage in inappropriate touching of any kind, and /or make sexually suggestive comments about, or to a child. This includes innuendo, flirting or inappropriate gestures and terms.
- Take measurements or engage in certain types of fitness testing without the presence of another adult.
- Undertake any form of therapy (hypnosis etc.) in the training of children.

Disciplinary, Complaints and Appeals Procedure for Triathlon Ireland

Complaints in relation to young people, their coaches and their parents involved in any of Triathlon Ireland events may be dealt with under the “Section 3 - Competition Rules” contained within the Triathlon Ireland Manual of Guidance ‘disciplinary action’ contained in part 3.13.

- Complaints should be received in writing by the National Children’s Officer of Triathlon Ireland.
- The complaint should outline all relevant details about the parties involved.
- The complaint should be brought to the attention of the Lead Officer who may convene a disciplinary committee (including 3 Triathlon Ireland members with no connection to any of the involved parties). For complaints involving members of Triathlon Ireland, the Lead Officer will invoke the disciplinary action under part 3.13 of the Triathlon Ireland Manual of Guidance for incidents in competition; HR Policy for staff incidents and Triathlon Ireland Constitution for incidents for members outside of competition.
- If the complaint involves the possibility of a criminal offence, the Lead Officer will follow the reporting procedure in Irish Sports Council Code of Ethics, Chapter 5 (in particular 5.10 – 5.12). The statutory authorities will then be informed.
- The appropriate disciplinary committee should hear the case of all parties involved and decide if a rule or regulation of the Code has been infringed.
- They should, in writing, inform those involved of the sanctions to be imposed. Written notification should be given to parents if the complaint is against a junior member.
- Records should be kept on file by Triathlon Ireland in accordance with data protection legislation and UK Child Protection legislation. The appropriate case management records relating to their own members and staff will be held at their national headquarters.
- If any party does not agree with the disciplinary findings the appropriate appeals process can be invoked.
- The appeals committee shall have the power to confirm, set aside or change any sanction imposed by the disciplinary committee.

If, after the disciplinary process, a person is to be suspended the organisation will carry out a risk assessment to decide the level of protection needed for juniors and any future juniors working with any accused persons. The organisation will decide if it will terminate membership of the organisation.

Recruitment & Supervision Policy for Sports Leaders/Volunteers

Triathlon will take all reasonable steps to ensure that adults working with young people are suitable and appropriately qualified. Recruitment and/or supervision procedures will apply to all persons with substantial access to young people, whether paid or unpaid. A decision to appoint a Leader is the responsibility of the club/ Triathlon Ireland and not of any one individual within it. The relevant committees should ratify all recommendations for appointment.

Triathlon Ireland will use the following as a suitable procedure:-

- The responsibilities of the role and the level of experience/qualifications required should be drawn up and clearly stated.
- Once voted / nominated to a position the Leader should be made aware of the code of conduct as it relates to young people and any related guidelines within this document. This involves newly recruited volunteers and all volunteers assigned by the club/Triathlon Ireland for that season.
- Existing Leaders will sign the appropriate code of conduct (form10), including the self-declaration questions, (see TI appendix 3) (form 8). Leaders will also be requested to undergo Garda vetting in the Republic of Ireland and Access NI in Northern Ireland.
- New Leaders should fill in an information form, giving names of two referees that can be contacted and answering the self-declaration questions. (see TI appendix 1). Leaders will also be requested to undergo Garda vetting in the Republic of Ireland and Access NI in Northern Ireland.
- Where appropriate there will be an induction process, this will be done in an informal manner with members of Triathlon Ireland, perhaps at a junior event. Following this, a probationary period is most likely.
- Adequate supervision will be combined with good recruitment, avoiding the Leader having to work alone.
- Vetting forms are available from Triathlon Ireland, Useful Resources, Child Protection Information for further information see <http://www.triathlonireland.com/child-protection-and-safeguarding.html>
- Positive disclosures or information received about an individual through vetting does not necessarily effect the Leaders recruitment. Each disclosure is managed on a case-by-case basis with the Leader and through the organisation. A risk assessment will be carried out. The organisation will record all decisions in a fair manner and natural justice will apply.
- Failure to comply with the above recruitment procedure can disqualify the Leader from selection or appointment to a position.

Every effort will be made to manage and support appointed Leaders. Coaching courses and workshops will be provided, codes of conduct will be made available and vetting procedures will be implemented.

General Guidelines with Children

Travelling

There is extra responsibility taken on by leaders when they travel with children to events. When travelling with young people you should:

- Ensure that there is adequate insurance cover.
- Not carry more than the permitted number of passengers.
- Ensure use of safety belts.
- Avoid being alone with one participant. Put the passenger in the back seat, drop off at central locations or seek parental permission to transport an individual participant on a regular basis and clearly state times of pick- up and drop off.

Supervision

- Make sure there is an adequate adult:child ratio. This will depend on the nature of the activity, the age of the participants, any special needs of the group and away trips. As a guide a ratio of 1:8 for under 12 years of age and 1:10 for participants over 12 years of age.
- Where there are mixed groups on a regular basis there should be leaders of both genders.
- Avoid being alone with one participant, if you need to talk separately do so in an open environment, in view of others.
- Supervision of changing rooms if necessary, (where children are very young or need special assistance), should be in pairs of appropriate gender.
- Clearly state time for start and end of training sessions or competitions, leaders should remain in pairs until all participants have been collected.
- Keep attendance records and record of any incidents / injuries that arise.
- Facilitate parents who wish to stay and supervise sessions, (for safety and supervision, not necessarily for their 'technical' expertise).

Away trips / Overnight stays

- Separate permission forms should be signed by parents and participants, containing emergency contact number(s).
- Young participants should sign a behaviour agreement.
- Appoint a group leader who will make a report on returning home.
- A meeting with parents and participants may be used to communicate travel times, competition details, other activities, gear requirements, medical requirements, special dietary needs and any other necessary details.
- Rooming arrangements – adults will not share rooms with children. Children should share rooms with those of same age and gender and adults should knock before entering rooms.
- All group socialisation should take place in communal areas (i.e. no boys in girls' rooms and vice versa).
- Alcoholic drink, smoking or any illegal substances are forbidden to athletes.
- There should be at least one adult of each gender with a mixed party, there should be a good adult – child ratio, 2:10, and proper access to medical personnel.
- Lights out times should be enforced.
- Young athletes should be under reasonable supervision at all times and should never leave the venue or go unsupervised without prior permission.

Safety

Make reference to Triathlon Ireland's safety statement, including specific and potential risks attached to triathlon, for further detail. In addition 'Triathlon Ireland will:

- Ensure activities are suitable for age and stage of development of participants.
- Keep a record of any specific medical conditions of the participants.
- Keep a record of emergency contact numbers for parents / guardians.
- Ensure any necessary protective gear is used.
- Ensure First Aid kit is close at hand with access to qualified first-aider.
- Know the contact numbers of emergency services.
- Keep first aid kit appropriately stocked.
- Ensure easy access to medical personnel if needed and have an emergency plan.
- If an incident occurs, make a brief record of injury and action taken. Make a brief record of the problem/action/outcome. Contact the participant's parents and keep them informed of all details.
- Expect officials (technical/organisers, etc.) to ensure the conduct of the race.
- Expect participants to know and keep the etiquette guidelines of triathlon, keeping in mind that many rules are in place for the safety and enjoyment of the race.
- Check that Leaders hold appropriate qualifications required by the governing body.
- Ensure there is adequate insurance cover for all activities.
- Ensure parents / guardians are present at finishing time of sessions or events.

Physical Contact

Triathlon on occasion requires a 'hands on approach', especially in a teaching or coaching situation, e.g., it may be necessary to assist a young person with instruction on swim technique but the following will be taken into consideration:

- Leaders will avoid unnecessary physical contact.
- Any necessary contact should be in response to the needs of the child and not the adult.
- It should be in an open environment with the permission and understanding of the participant.
- It should be determined by the age and developmental stage of the participant – A Leader won't do something that a child can do for themselves.
- Leaders should not engage in inappropriate touching.

Late Collection

If a parent is late to collect a child Triathlon Ireland will contact the parent using the emergency contact number. If there is no answer Triathlon Ireland will ask the child if there is another family member to contact. The Leaders will wait with the young person at the club or venue, preferably with other staff or volunteers. The Leaders will remind parents of the policy in relation to good practice and supervision. Continual later collection will be dealt with under the parents' code of behaviour.

Guidelines on use of Photographic and Filming Equipment

Triathlon Ireland has adopted a policy in relation to the use of images of athletes on their websites and in other publications as part of its commitment to providing a safe environment to young people. Triathlon Ireland will take all necessary steps to ensure that young people are protected from the inappropriate use of their images in resource and media publications, on the internet and elsewhere. This is not to avoid parents/guardians taking photographs of their children but to ensure that best practice is put in place wherever and whenever photographs and recorded images are taken and stored.

Triathlon Ireland will endeavour to:

- Inform athletes and parents that a photographer may be in attendance at an event and ensure they consent to both the taking and publication of films or photographs.
- Ask for parental permission to use the athlete's image and consult with the athlete about its usage.
- Ensure the content of the photograph focuses on triathlon not on a particular child.
- Not approve/allow photo sessions outside the events or at an athlete's home.

Videoing as a coaching aid: Video equipment can be used as a legitimate coaching aid. However, permission will first be obtained from the athlete and the athlete's parents.

Anyone concerned about any photography taking place at events or training sessions can contact the lead officer and ask them to deal with the matter.

Mobile Phones

Young people value their mobile phones as it gives them a sense of independence. They can often be given to young people for security to enable parents to keep in touch. However, technology has enabled direct personal contact between adults and young people and in some cases adults have used this to cross personal boundaries and cause harm. Triathlon Ireland has agreed the following guidelines to encourage safe usage of mobile phones:

As a leader:

- Use group texts for communication among athletes and teams and inform parents of this at the start of the season, tournament or event.
- It is not appropriate or acceptable to have constant contact with an individual athlete.
- Don't use your phone in inappropriate locations, such as changing rooms, especially if your phone has a camera.

As a young athlete:

- If you receive an offensive message, email or photo don't reply to it, save it, make a note of times and dates and tell a parent, lead officer or responsible adult that you trust.
- Be careful about whom you give your number or email address to and don't respond to unfamiliar numbers/addresses.

- Don't use your phone in inappropriate locations, such as changing rooms, especially if your phone has a camera.
- Treat your phone as you would any valuable item so that you can guard against theft.

Social Media

Young People are becoming increasingly sophisticated in their use of communication tools on the internet such as social networking sites, internet enabled camera phones and video and photograph sharing websites. Social media/networking refers to online communities where people from all over the world can meet and share common interests.

The information posted to any of these types of sites can be public and viewed by anyone. This should encourage individuals to only post information they are comfortable with sharing with strangers. However often young people do not recognise the dangers of this and will treat the site as a means of personal interaction where they expose detailed information about themselves.

Children must be encouraged to be careful with the type of information they post to such sites. Where a site is public it should be used to transmit very general information only and not to become a personal conversation. Triathlon Ireland encourages the safe use of social media sites especially where the Club uses such a site.

Any information posted to social media sites should not contain any personal facts or details and positive in nature. Even networking sites viewed by invitation only can be infiltrated by potential abusers; parents should understand the need for monitoring content and any public interactions involving children to be moderated. Young people must be actively discouraged from entering into private exchanges with unknown individuals. Leaders in Triathlon Ireland should not interact with an U18 in any inappropriate manner. This form of communication would not be suitable to discuss performances.

All Club Children's Officers have copies of safe use of the internet publications from the Office of Internet Safety. Further information on the safe use of the internet, email and social media sites can be found on their website: www.internetsafety.ie

For further information on social media see website:
http://www.irishsportsCouncil.ie/Participation/Code_of_Ethics/Social_Media_Factsheet/

Bullying

Bullying can occur between an adult and young person and young person to young person. In either case it is not acceptable within Triathlon Ireland. The competitive nature of triathlon can create an environment that provides opportunities for bullying. The bully may be a parent who pushes too hard, a coach who adopts a win-at-all costs philosophy, a young athlete who intimidates another or an official who places unfair pressure on a person.

Bullying can only survive in an environment where the victim does not feel empowered to tell someone who can help or in which it is not safe to do so. The damage inflicted by bullying can frequently be underestimated. It can cause considerable distress to young people, to the extent it effects their health and development, or at the extreme, causes them significant harm. Triathlon Ireland has agreed the following guidelines to help prevent bullying:-

Triathlon Ireland will

- Encourage all members to follow the Code of Conduct, which promotes the rights and dignity of each member.
- Deal with any incidents as they arise.
- Use a whole group policy or 'no-blame approach', i.e. not 'bullying the bully' but working with bullies and the group of young people, helping them to understand the hurt they are causing, and so make the problem a 'shared concern' of the group.
- Reinforce that there is 'a permission to tell' culture rather than a 'might is right'.
- Encourage young people to negotiate, co-operate and help others, particularly new or children with specific needs.
- Offer the victim immediate support and put the 'no blame approach' into operation.
- Never tell a young person to ignore bullying, they can't ignore it, it hurts too much.
- Never encourage a young person to take the law into their own hands and beat the bully at his/her own game.
- Tell the victim there is nothing wrong with them and it is not their fault.

For further information on bullying and the 'no-blame' approach see website, www.irishsportscouncil.ie

The guidelines above are those of Triathlon Ireland. For club guidelines see Useful Resources / Child Protection Information on our website www.triathlonireland.com Or <http://www.triathlonireland.com/child-protection-and-safeguarding.html>

The guidelines below are in relation to an incident that cannot be dealt with within Triathlon Ireland as there may be risk of harm to a young person. In such cases statutory guidelines will be followed for dealing with a concern in relation to the welfare and protection of a child.

Child Welfare and Protection Procedures

Triathlon accepts that organisations, which include young people among its members, are vulnerable to the occurrence of child abuse. Below are the procedures for dealing with any welfare or protection issue that may arise. Child welfare and the protection of young people is the concern of all adults at all times, irrespective of their role within the organisation.

If there are grounds for concern about the safety or welfare of a young person you should react to the concern. Persons unsure about whether or not certain behaviours are abusive and therefore reportable, should contact the duty social worker in the local health services executive or social services department where they will receive advice. Grounds for concern include a specific indication from a child, a statement from a person who witnessed abuse or an illness, injury or behaviour consistent with abuse.

A report may be made by any member in the organisation but should be passed on to the Lead Officer, who may in turn have to pass the concern to the local Statutory Authorities. It is not the responsibility of anyone working within Triathlon Ireland, in a paid or voluntary capacity, to take responsibility or decide whether or not child abuse is taking place. That is the job of the local statutory authorities. However, there is a responsibility to protect children by assisting the appropriate agencies so that they can then make enquiries and take any necessary action to protect the young person.

Everyone should follow both procedures outlined below, firstly the procedure for responding to a child in distress and secondly the procedure for reporting the concern.

Response to a Child Disclosing Abuse

When a young person discloses information of suspected abuse you should:

- (a) Deal with any allegation of abuse in a sensitive and competent way through listening to and facilitating the child to tell about the problem, rather than interviewing the child about details of what happened.
- (b) Stay calm and don't show any extreme reaction to what the child is saying. Listen compassionately and take what the child is saying seriously.
- (c) Understand that the child has decided to tell something very important and has taken a risk to do so. The experience of telling should be a positive one so that the child will not mind talking to those involved in the investigation.
- (d) Be honest with the child and tell them that it is not possible to keep information a secret.
- (e) Make no judgmental statements against the person whom the allegation is made.
- (f) Do not question the child unless the nature of what s/he is saying is unclear. Leading questions should be avoided. Open, non-specific questions should be used such as "Can you explain to me what you mean by that".
- (g) Check out the concerns with the parents/guardians before making a report unless doing so would endanger the child.
- (h) Give the child some indication of what would happen next, such as informing parents/guardians, police or social services. It should be kept in mind that the child may have been threatened and may feel vulnerable at this stage.
- (i) Carefully record the details.
- (j) Pass on this information to the Lead Officer.
- (k) Reassure the child that they have done the right thing in telling you.

Reporting Suspected or Disclosed Child Abuse

The following steps should be taken in reporting child abuse to the statutory authorities:

- (a) Observe and note dates, times, locations and contexts in which the incident occurred or suspicion was aroused, together with any other relevant information.
- (b) Report the matter as soon as possible to the Lead Officer within the organisation who has responsibility for reporting abuse. If the Lead Officer has reasonable grounds for believing that the child has been abused or is at risk of abuse, s/he will make a report to the local social services that have statutory responsibility to investigate and assess suspected or actual child abuse.
- (c) In cases of emergency, where a child appears to be at immediate and serious risk and the Lead Officer is unable to contact a duty social worker, the police authorities should be contacted. Under no circumstances should a child be left in a dangerous situation pending intervention by the Statutory Authorities.
- (d) If the Lead Officer is unsure whether reasonable grounds for concern exist s/he can informally consult with the local social services. S/he will be advised whether or not the matter requires a formal report

A Lead Officer reporting suspected or actual child abuse to the Statutory Authorities will first inform the family of their intention to make such a report, unless doing so would endanger the child or undermine an investigation

The Protection for Persons Reporting Child Abuse Act, 1998 (ROI only) provides immunity from civil liability to persons who report child abuse 'reasonably and in good faith' to the Health Services Executive or the Gardaí. The act also covers the offence of 'false reporting'. The main provisions of the Act are:

1. The provision of immunity from civil liability to any person who reports child abuse "reasonably and in good faith" to designated officers of Health Service Executive or any member of An Garda Síochána
2. The provision of significant protections for employees who report child abuse. These protections cover all employees and all forms of discrimination up to and including, dismissal
3. The creation of a new offence of false reporting of child abuse where a person makes a report of child abuse to the appropriate authorities "knowing that statement to be false". This is a new criminal offence designed to protect innocent persons from malicious reports

This law does not exist in Northern Ireland, but an individual who reports concerns in 'good faith' is not deliberately attempting to slander another person's name. In Northern Ireland there is legislation, the Criminal Law Act (NI) 1967 which places the responsibility on everyone to report offences or to forward information to the police by emphasising the, 'duty of every other person, who knows or believes, (a) that the offence or some other arrestable offence has been committed: and (b) that he has information which is likely to secure, or to be material assistance in securing, the apprehension, prosecution or conviction of any person for that offence'

Allegations against Sports Leaders

Triathlon Ireland has agreed procedures to be followed in cases of alleged child abuse complaints concerning Leaders. If such an allegation is made against a Sports Leader working within the organisation, two procedures will be followed:

- The reporting procedure in respect of suspected child abuse (reported by the Lead officer), see previous page.
- The procedure for dealing with the Sports Leader (carried out by the organisation's chair or senior officer, or a person not already involved with the child protection concern).

The safety of the child making the allegation should be considered and the safety of any other children who may be at risk. The organisation will take any necessary steps that may be needed to protect children in its care.

The issue of confidentiality is important. Information is on a need to know basis and the Sports Leader will be treated with respect and fairness.

While the Lead Officer makes the report to the local statutory authorities, the senior officer of the organisation should deal with the Leader in question.

- Triathlon Ireland will privately inform the Leader that (a) an allegation has been made against him / her and (b) the nature of the allegation. He / she should be afforded an opportunity to respond. His / her response should be noted and passed on to the social services
- The Leader may be asked to step aside pending the outcome of the investigation. When a person is asked to step aside it will be made clear that it is only a precautionary measure and will not prejudice any later disciplinary proceedings

Disciplinary action on the Leader may be considered but this will not interfere with the investigation of the Statutory Authorities. The outcome of the investigation and any implications it might have will be considered. The fact that the alleged abuser has not been prosecuted or been found guilty does not automatically mean that they are appropriate to work with young people in the future.

Irrespective of the findings of the Statutory Authorities, Triathlon Ireland Disciplinary Committees will assess all individual cases to decide whether a member of staff or volunteer should continue or be reinstated and if so how this can be sensitively handled. This may be a difficult decision, especially where there is insufficient evidence to uphold any action by the statutory authorities. In such case the Triathlon Ireland Disciplinary Committee will reach a decision based upon the available information which could suggest that on the balance of probability, it is more likely than not that the allegation is true, and the implications of this for the safety of children. The welfare of the child will remain of paramount importance throughout. Triathlon Ireland may need to disclose information to ensure the protection of young people in its care.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality should be maintained in respect of all issues and people involved in cases of abuse, welfare or bad practice. It is important that the rights of both the child and the person about whom the complaint has been made are protected.

Triathlon Ireland will consider the following when discussing concerns:

- A guarantee of confidentiality or undertakings regarding secrecy cannot be given, as the welfare of the child will supersede all other considerations.
- All information should be treated in a careful and sensitive manner and should be discussed only with those who need to know.
- Information should be conveyed to the parents / guardians of the child in a sensitive way.
- Giving information to others on a 'need to know' basis for the protection of a child is not a breach of confidentiality.
- All persons involved in a child protection process (the child, his/her parents/guardians, the alleged offender, his/her family, Leaders) should be afforded appropriate respect, fairness, support and confidentiality at all stages of the procedure.
- Information should be stored in a secure place, with limited access only to Lead Officers and appropriate personnel.
- The requirements of Data Protection laws should be adhered to.
- Breach of confidentiality is a serious matter.

Anonymous Complaints / Rumours

Anonymous complaints can be difficult to deal with but will not be ignored. Rumours should not be allowed to hang in the air. All concerns relating to inappropriate behaviour should be brought to the attention of the Lead Officer and any such complaints brought to the attention of the Lead Officer will be dealt with. The information should be checked out and handled in a confidential manner. In all cases the safety and welfare of the child/children is paramount.

Triathlon Ireland Club Policies

The preceding pages of this document contain the policy of Triathlon Ireland but each club and affiliated organisation is entitled to use any of the policies as a guide when developing their own club guidelines. See sample club policy on <http://www.triathlonireland.com/child-protection-and-safeguarding.html>

The implementation of the Code is the responsibility of each club working with young people and its implementation will offer protection to all members when providing services to young people and their sports leaders. Training is available locally to assist clubs in implementing their policy and Lead Officers in Triathlon Ireland can offer advice about each of the policies contained in this document.

It is recommended that each club appoint at least one Lead Officer. This person can be the person who already co-ordinates junior triathlon in the club. This Lead Officer will manage all activities and issues in relation to young people at club level, while Triathlon Ireland Children's Officer will manage all issues at national and regional level. From time to time it will be necessary for Triathlon Ireland Children's Officer to liaise with Club Lead Officers and vice-versa.

For Children's Officers within Triathlon Ireland, please see contacts TI Appendix

6) Handover Protocol & Procedures for missing participants

- Times of particular concern are when children are arriving at/leaving the event or when they are transferring between venues and facilities.
- The handover of junior athletes back to their parents after the event is a crucial stage. A system should be put in place to ensure the correct parent/guardian is collecting the correct junior. One system could be to print the race numbers onto labels which are given to the parents who can then collect the child with the corresponding number.
- You should advise parents, children and young people that they must notify the relevant member of your event team of any changes they wish to make to arrival or leaving arrangements, eg collecting a child.
- Establish a procedure including a meeting point for missing or lost children.
 - Brief volunteers of the missing child procedure prior to the event.
 - Where possible Use walkie talkies to communicate to volunteers and marshalls regarding the missing participant.

In this instance the adult should contact the parent/guardian to inform them of the situation, and the child should be seated in the rear seat.
 4. Provide a programme or plan for the event, camp or competition. Plan should include a schedule for supervising the juniors.

9) Photography and Filming Policy

Photography and Filming Guidelines

Triathlon Ireland has adopted a policy in order to implement best practice in relation to the use of images of athletes on their websites and in other publications. These guidelines are part of TI's commitment to providing a safe environment for young people as well as photographers at events. Triathlon Ireland will take all necessary steps to ensure that young people are protected from the inappropriate use of their images in resource and media publications, on the internet and elsewhere. This is not to avoid parents/guardians taking photographs of their children but to ensure that best practice is put in place wherever and whenever photographs and recorded images are taken and stored. TI approved photographers are trained photographers who are familiar with the TI Safeguarding guidelines around photography and have agreed to undergo Garda Vetting and sign a code of conduct as part of their contract. All TI photographers are required to sign in at the event and wear a TI media vest and or appropriate identification.

If you are concerned about any photography taking place at an event, please contact the promoter or event organiser who will be pleased to discuss this matter with you.

Triathlon Ireland will have approved TI photographers at selected sanctioned events and so will endeavour to:

- Where possible, ask for parental permission to use the athlete's image and consult with the athlete about its usage.
- Not approve/allow photo sessions outside the events or at an athlete's home, unsupervised access to children or one to one photo sessions at events.
- Only use images of children in suitable dress/kit. When in or around the pool area, only use photographs of children who are fully immersed or fully clothed.
- Use group photographs as a pose to individual photographs. However, if individual photos are used, ensure they are of an appropriate nature.
- Not to include the name of a child whose image is being used and avoid the inclusion of other detailed information about individual children as this will reduce the risk of inappropriate, unsolicited attention from people within and outside the sport.

- Provide clear and efficient reporting channels for children, parents and others should they have concerns regarding the abuse of images or the use of inappropriate images. In summary the channel is: Event Designated Person, event Organiser, the National Children's Officer in TI.
- Clarify issues of ownership, retention and access (by event staff and participants/parents) to the images.
- Inform parents that while taking photographs of their own children is OK, they should respect other young people's privacy and comply with the TI Photography and Filming policy. These guidelines should be available at events.
- Other professional photographers/filming/video operators wishing to record the event should seek accreditation with the event organiser by producing their professional identification for the details to be recorded. Ideally, they should request this at least 7 days working days before the event and bring a copy of their identification. The race organiser reserves the right to decline entry to any person unable to meet or abide by the promoter's conditions and the right to review video taken at the event on request.

Guidelines to be given to Other/ Impromptu Photographers by Race Organiser:

- All outside photographers (for example from newspapers/magazines, club photographer) should seek accreditation with the event organiser by producing their professional identification for the details to be recorded. Ideally, they should request this at least 7 days working days before the event. The race organiser reserves the right to decline entry to any person unable to meet or abide by the promoter's conditions.
- All outside photographers are required to sign in at an event.
- Any photograph taken should be of an appropriate nature. Any person taking inappropriate photographs will have their accreditation/registration status removed by the event organiser and the matter reported to the appropriate Designated Person/Statutory agencies.
- Group photographs involving children are preferable to individual photographs.
- In the pool and surrounding area, only photograph children who are fully immersed or fully clothed.
- If the juniors clothing is inappropriate do not photograph.

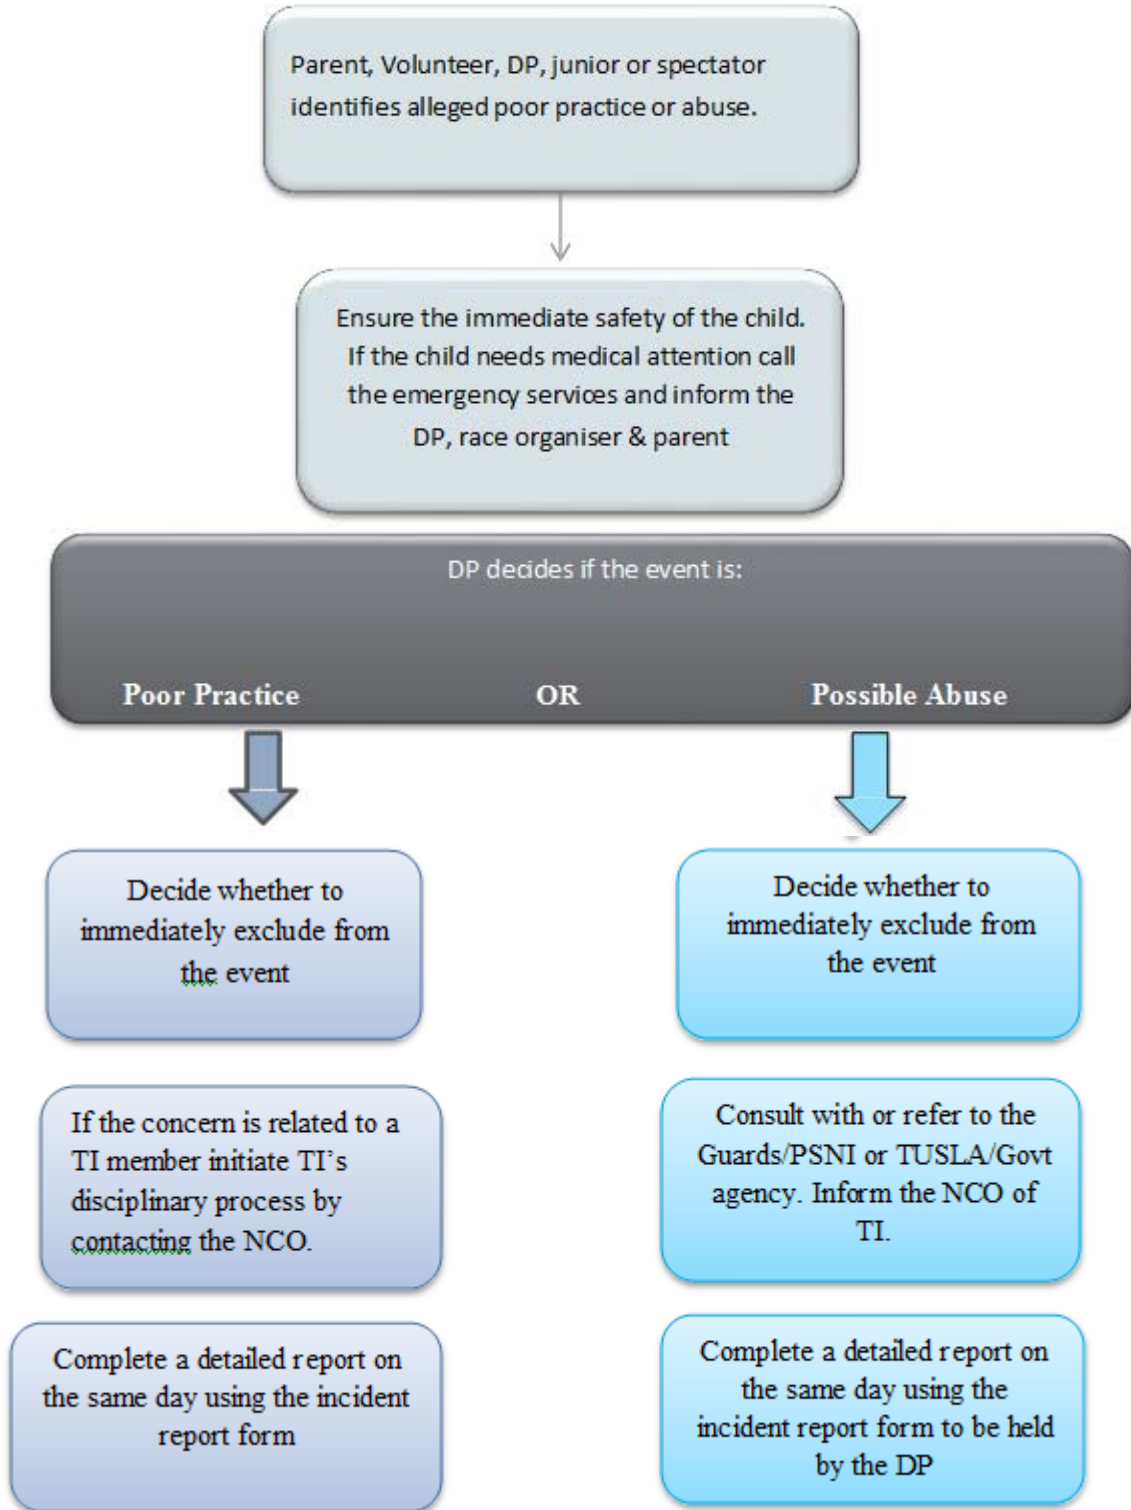

- Names of Juniors in photos may not be published and names should be airbrushed if featured on the race number.
- If in doubt regarding the suitability of a picture consult with the club Childrens Officer or Designated Safeguarding Lead at the event OR do not photograph.
- Re prints and soft copies of photos of Juniors may only be released to parents/guardians of the child.
- Photographers must comply with the TI Safeguarding Code including the Code of Conduct for Volunteers.

10) Reporting and Recording procedures

Reporting Procedures Flowchart

Recording Procedures

- Incidents and Accidents should be recorded using the appropriate forms. Form 12/Form 13.
